WELCOME TO PEREGRINE

From our humble first steps in the foothills of Nepal, we’ve expanded to over 80 countries across all seven continents. Over 40 years of operating, one thing has stayed constant – our desire for authentic adventure.

Our passionate guides and leaders will give you the story behind the well-known highlights, then help you find the smaller moments that make your journey truly unforgettable.

With a maximum group size of just 12 people, you’ll be able to slip between alleys and see local secrets the big groups just can’t reach and eat and stay in more intimate and authentic locations.

We’re a company built by travellers, for travellers, and it shows in every step.

Take your next one with us.
At Peregrine, we believe small groups are the key to unlocking unforgettable adventures.

Travelling in small groups of 12 or fewer means we can keep experiences spontaneous and authentic and discover local secrets. It’s the ideal number to duck between market stalls or sit down for a leisurely meal at a local family restaurant. Better still, sharing these moments with like-minded people elevates them to memories that you’ll treasure for a lifetime.

WORLD-CLASS LEADERS With an intimate group, you’ll really get to know your leader. Share stories and meals, getting the chance to ask more questions and go deeper than the guidebook.

HAND-PICKED ACCOMMODATION We have the flexibility to stay in a wider range of lodgings, and we carefully select all our accommodation for a reason. Whether it’s the spectacular view, central location, historical relevance or all the above.

EFFORTLESS TRAVEL We adapt our transport for each destination, without compromising on comfort. When we’re not travelling by motorised canoe into the Amazon, or by vintage American car in Havana, we use private vehicles to reduce travel time.

PEREGRINE MOMENTS

After 40 years travelling the globe, we’ve learnt it’s the little things that make a trip memorable. Peregrine Moments lead you off the well-worn tourist trails and take you a little deeper into the culture. Sure, we’ll take you to Machu Picchu, but we’ll also introduce you to the lesser-known pre-Inca ruins of Cocachimba.
Our leader had an amazing breadth of knowledge and organisational ability. Finding someone with both skills, and at such a high level, is rare.
Over 20 years ago, we became the first tour company of our kind to exclusively employ local leaders in the destinations we visit. Because who better to guide you through the backstreets than someone who lives there?

Our trips feature plenty of guidebook highlights, but you won’t stop there. Our leaders will help you to find experiences that are intimate, authentic and memorable, away from the well-worn path.

Our small group size guarantees you more one-on-one time with your leader and the opportunity to develop a meaningful relationship with them and the destination you’re exploring.

Let our local leaders show you their world.
Travelling in small groups means we aren’t restricted to staying in larger chain hotels. Our destination experts can seek out accommodation that better reflects the style of the region.

You’ll spend less time waiting in queues for check-in and more time soaking up your surrounds. We don’t subscribe to the idea that adventure means forgoing comfort, and the accommodation we use is hand-picked for its quality, amenities and location. All of our standard trips also include a special feature stay – lodgings selected for their ability to enrich your experience. What that means will change depending on the destination. From a room with a view of thundering Gocta Falls in Cocachimba to the historic Hotel Geneve in Mexico City’s Old Town, your stay will be memorable for all the right reasons.
Hotel Isla Suasi, Peru
This sophisticated eco-lodge lies on a tranquil, privately-owned island near the floating reed islands of Uros.

Hotel Atitlan, Guatemala
Enjoy a touch of luxury on the edge of Lake Atitlan, with incredible views of the surrounding volcanoes.
RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL

At Peregrine, we don’t think responsible travel has to mean roughing it.

We care deeply about how we balance visiting must-see destinations with protecting landmarks and ecosystems, and we constantly review our operations to look for ways to reduce our environmental footprint.

Any emissions created by the transport or accommodation used in our trips are offset through the purchase of carbon credits, as part of our decade-long commitment to being a carbon neutral business.

We’re industry leaders when it comes to animal welfare – in 2014 we were the first global tour operator to end elephant rides, and our concerns about child protection saw us remove orphanage visits from our itineraries in 2016.

We’re curious, just like our travellers. That’s why regardless of whether we go to popular travel spots or lesser-known places, we always use local knowledge to avoid the crowds and we make sure our trips contribute to the local economy.

We’ve set a goal for our sustainable, small ship Adventure Cruising range to be plastic-free by 2020, and we’re currently partnering with Travellers Against Plastic to minimise disposable plastic use.

With Peregrine, it’s responsible travel that you can enjoy.

The Intrepid Foundation was set up to help local organisations improve livelihoods through sustainable travel experiences. It now supports over 35 local, grassroots organisations around the world and empowers travellers to have a positive impact on the communities they visit. Travellers can give back by supporting a range of projects and not-for-profit organisations.

Find out how you can help at theintrepidfoundation.org

In 2018, Intrepid/Peregrine celebrated becoming a certified B Corp, making us the largest in the travel industry. More than just a logo, B Corp certification is a rigorous process that helps businesses to be better, and customers to easily identify the difference between good business and good marketing. It demonstrates our commitment to creating positive change for our planet, our people and the local communities we visit.
PEREGRINE NEW EXPERIENCES

We’ve been travelling the world for 40 years, and our spirit for adventure is just as strong now as when we took our first steps into the foothills of Nepal way back in 1978.

Though we now operate in 80 countries across all seven continents, we’ll never stop seeking new adventures. In 2019 we’re introducing over 20 new experiences around the globe. For the first time this year, we’ll introduce you to the Quakers who settled in Costa Rica and you’ll learn to make cloth using traditional methods in Mexico’s San Cristobal de las Casas.

Below, find four of our favourite new trips across South and Central America, and look for the New Trip logo throughout the brochure to see more.

Because you never outgrow adventure.

PRIVATE GROUP TRAVEL

We understand that some travellers would prefer to see the world with a group of family or friends. We can help you create a tailor-made trip to suit any group, whether it’s large or small.

Planning a romantic getaway with your significant other, or a family reunion? Choose from one of our existing itineraries and talk to our team about enhancing it. We can add activities, elevate your accommodation to a luxury level or tailor the itinerary to a specific interest – like food or photography. You can even select your departure date when travelling with four or more people. Use our expertise to design a unique trip for yourself.

INDEPENDENT EXPERIENCES

Departing for a group tour on a specific date doesn’t suit everyone. Take an Independent Experience – designed for one or two people – before or after a small group trip, or mix and match a few experiences to create your ideal trip combination. It’s independent travel without the stress.
USING THIS BROCHURE

Every Peregrine trip has been given a physical activity rating, on a scale of 1-5.

●●●●● These trips are a relaxing break. You don’t have to worry about doing anything physically demanding unless you want to.

●●●● Some easy physical activities are included in your trip. No physical preparation is required to make the most of the journey.

●●●● This trip will raise your heartbeat. Moderate physical activities are included and a good level of fitness is required.

●●●●● Be prepared for some serious physical activity. The fitter you are, the more you’ll enjoy it, as most activities will be challenging.

●●●●● Get ready for a heart-pumping adventure with plenty of challenges and some extreme conditions. You’ll be required to be seriously fit for this trip, as difficult activities are included.

GROUP WALKING TOURS

Most of our itineraries are designed for people with an average level of fitness, but these involve a little bit of huff and puff.

COMBINATION TRIPS

This indicates two or three trips combined. On these trips, some travellers will do the whole journey while others will join halfway through. It can also mean the leader will change on different sections of the trip. Transfers between trips are included.

This icon is used to indicate key trips that are consistently in high demand and can sell out quickly.
The historical and ongoing tussle between the conquerors (the Spanish conquistadors) and the conquered features heavily throughout South American culture. It’s why you’ll see native Aymara women in the street markets of La Paz with their brightly coloured dresses offset by a few-sizes-too-small bowler hat. It’s why indigenous ancestral themes are found all over the magnificent colonial works of the Quito School of Art, and it’s why Machu Picchu is thought of as the Lost City of the Inca, simply because the Spanish never got their hands on it.
SOUTH AMERICA
COMBINATION TRIPS

The only thing more rewarding than exploring the rhythms and flavours of one part of South America? Continuing your adventure elsewhere. Can’t decide whether you’d rather see the remnants of an ancient empire at Machu Picchu or sip malbec in Mendoza? With our combination trips, you can do both – and more. See these maps (and the trip pages) for our full selection of combo trips.

Hotel Patio Andaluz – Quito (Day 1)

Northern Peru & One Day Inca Trail – Limited Edition

13 Days

Days 1-2 Lima Welcome to Lima, where modern Peruvian life swirls around the remains of a grand ancient culture. An orientation walk through the Miraflores and Barranco districts will give you your first taste of Peru. Get under the surface with a full-city tour on your second day.

Day 3 Cocachimba Board a plane bound for the lofty jungle city of Jaen. Drive to the Gocta Andes Lodge in mountain-fortified Cocachimba. This hotel was designed around the perennial Gocta Falls, which cascade in the distance. Every bedroom is fall-facing, with bonus views of the lovely gardens and surrounding terraces where llamas graze.

Day 4 Cocachimba Hike to the falls you have seen from afar. This natural marvel remained unmapped and ‘undiscovered’ by outsiders until 2005, when a German economist stumbled across what it turned out was the third-largest waterfall in the world.

Day 5 Cocachimba Spend the morning exploring the massive concentric walls of Kuelap – a fortress city once home to the pre-Inca Chachapoya people.

Day 6 Cocachimba Delve further into mysterious Chachapoya culture with a visit to the Revash Mausoleums. These ancient tombs were built into the craggy limestone cliffs of Laguna de los Condores. Then, tour the mummified remains of the ‘Warriors of the Clouds’ at the Leymebamba Museum.

Day 7 Cusco A day of travel will deliver you to Cusco at 7 or 8 pm.

The upper terraces of the site offer great photo opportunities of the squared-grid town below.

Days 9-10 Inca Trail to Machu Picchu Enter the trail at ‘km 104’. After crossing the Urubamba River, pass the ruins of Chachabamba and climb up to Winaywayna before trekking to Inti Punku (The Sun Gate). Return at dawn the next day to explore the site with a guide, marvelling at the precision and advanced architecture of the temples, palaces and living quarters.

Journey to Nazca and get your first glimpse of the confounding eponymous etchings in the afternoon.

More than twice as deep as the Grand Canyon, the Colca Canyon provides breathtaking views. The pre-Inca terraces carved into the canyon's walls are still cultivated today, and villages are dotted throughout the area.

Visit the chullpas (funeral towers) of Sillustani, then continue to Puno. Wander the cobbled streets of Peru's folklore capital, a melting pot of Aymara and Quechua Indian culture. Be enchanted by the tranquil scenery and silken waters of Lake Titicaca. Stop by the floating Uros islands, constructed from multiple layers of totora reeds, before alighting on Suasi Island, where you will spend two evenings.

Cross the spectacular altiplano to the lofty city of Cusco – the heart and soul of modern Peru. Inca-built walls line the central street and many of the city's colonial buildings are built on or around Inca foundations.

Explore Cusco Cathedral with a local history expert. This 17th-century church is not only a place of worship, it also houses a wealth of colonial-era art.

Enjoy drinks and snacks while the sun sets behind volcanoes, giving the still waters of Lake Titicaca a warm glow.

Enjoy two nights at Lake Titicaca's exclusive private island eco-lodge. Hike, swim or simply relax among the flowers and vicunas.

GALAPAGOS ISLANDS

Up in the highlands of Isla Santa Cruz you’ll find Galapagos tortoises milling around (if something so big and slow could be said to ‘mill’), shuffling along in search of their next meal. The picture is so perfect, the tortoises so impeccably framed by lush greenery, it’s as if someone has deliberately placed them there. It’s a feeling that you’ll often get travelling in the Galapagos, almost a thousand kilometres from the South American mainland. It seems every new beach, lagoon, hillside and outcrop you visit is home to an abundance of amazing creatures unperturbed by your presence.
MEALS
Healthy and generous meals are prepared three times a day by the onboard chef. Complimentary tea, coffee and purified water are available at all times, and soft drinks and alcoholic beverages can be purchased at the bar – simply pay your tab at the end of the cruise. Any special dietary requirements should be mentioned when booking.

A TYPICAL DAY
Each day there’s a morning and an afternoon activity, which might be a wet or dry shore landing, a walk, a Zodiac ride or snorkelling. Zodiacs take you from the boat to each site and all activities are led by your expert naturalist guide. You don’t need to be able to swim to enjoy your time here; you can do activities from land, boat or Zodiac.

LUGGAGE
There are luggage restrictions and limited storage on the flight to and from the Galapagos Islands. As your trip starts and finishes at the same hotel in Quito, we suggest only bringing essential items and leaving the remainder of your luggage in the secure storage facility at the hotel.

TIPPING
If you have enjoyed the services of your guide and crew, you can tip to show your appreciation. As a guideline we recommend each passenger consider USD 15 per day for the crew and USD 10 per day for your guide.

SNORKELLING GEAR
Snorkelling equipment (mask, snorkel and flippers) and wetsuits are provided on board the Grand Queen Beatriz at no extra charge. A range of sizes and wetsuit lengths are available.

NATIONAL PARK AND PORT FEES
A transit card fee of USD 20 is to be paid prior to departure from Quito Airport and a National Park fee of USD 100 is to be paid on arrival on the Galapagos Islands. These fees are to be paid locally in cash and are not included in the trip price. If you’re visiting Isla Isabela, there’s a USD 5 port fee to be paid on arrival.
Galapagos Penguins
The only penguin to live north of the equator, Galapagos penguins can be spotted feeding just off shore and are some of the speediest swimmers on the island.

Sea Lions
The Galapagos' most iconic animal is also its most prolific. Spot them all over the archipelago.

Whales
Sperm, killer, pilot and humpback whale sightings are all in a day's work here.

Marine Iguanas
There may be as many as 300,000 marine iguanas calling the archipelago home, so the world's only seafaring lizard is impossible to miss.

Sea Turtles
Snorkel warm waters and play tag with the islands' zippiest swimmers.

Volcanoes
With five out of its six volcanoes still active, Isabela is one of the most volcanic places on earth.
